VACRANT VERSES

Now I Lay Me Down to Sleep." The fire upon the hearth is low.
And there is stillness everywhere.
Like troubled spirits, here and there
The firelighs shadows finitering go.
And as the shadows round me creep
A childish trelie breaks the gloom,
And soft; from a further room.
Comes: "Now I lay me down to sleep,"

And, somehow, with that little prayer
And that sweet troble in my ears.
My thought goes back to distant years
And lingers with a dear one there.
And as I hear the child's amen
My mother's faith comes back to me,
Couched at her side I seem to be,
And mother bloke my hands again.

Oir, for an hour in that dear plane!
Oh. for the peace of that dear time!
Oh, for that childish trans sublime!
Oh, for a glimpse of mother's face!
Yet, as the shadows round me creep,
I do not seem to be alone—
Sweet magic of that treble stone—
And "Now I as me down to sleep."
